

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

TAJAI CALIP,
Plaintiff,
v.
M.E.I.C., et al.,
Defendants.

Case No. 15-cv-02357-MEJ

ORDER DISCHARGING ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

Re: Dkt. No. 7

On May 27, 2015, Plaintiff Tajai Calip filed a Complaint against Defendants “Dr. Brooks” and insurance company “M.E.I.C.” for the death of her infant daughter, as well as an Application to Proceed In Forma Pauperis (“IFP”). Plaintiff consented to magistrate judge jurisdiction on June 10, 2015. Dkt. No. 5. After reviewing Plaintiff’s IFP Application, the Court was unable to determine whether Plaintiff is entitled to proceed IFP and ordered her to provide a supplemental declaration. Dkt. No. 6. The Court warned Plaintiff that if she did not file the responsive declaration by July 1, 2015, her Complaint may be dismissed. Id. Plaintiff failed to respond by that date, and on July 15, 2015, the Court issued an Order to Show Cause to Plaintiff as to why this case should not be dismissed for failure to prosecute and failure to comply with court deadlines. Dkt. No. 7. However, it appears that Plaintiff filed an amended IFP Application on July 13, 2015, but it was not entered into the docket for this case until July 17, 2015, after the Court issued the Order to Show Cause. See Dkt. No. 8.

Although the amended IFP Application does not precisely comply with the Court’s Order for Plaintiff to file a responsive declaration, it does demonstrate Plaintiff’s intent to continue prosecuting this action and appears to address the Court’s earlier concerns. Accordingly, the

1 Court DISCHARGES the Order to Show Cause and VACATES the related response and hearing
2 deadlines. The Court will issue a separate order addressing Plaintiff's IFP Application.

3 Plaintiff is reminded that, for all future filings, she must comply with all Court orders and
4 deadlines. Failure to comply may result in the dismissal of her case.

5 IT IS SO ORDERED.
